By paying either a deposit or full fees, you confirm that you have read, understood, and agree to the following terms and conditions. These terms and conditions apply to both direct students and bookings via agents unless variations are expressly agreed between the agent and Oscar Education.

TERMINOLOGY:

- Bookings = Provisional or Confirmed Bookings (also referred to as “options”, “allocations”, or “reservations”)
- Client = Agent or other clients sending Bookings to Oscar Education, including Direct Bookings
- TeenEagle = TeenEagle Ltd.

1. BOOKING

TeenEagle holds bookings for clients subject to the receipt of payments to TeenEagle’s Accounts Department or our bank by the latest due dates as stated on the invoice(s). If full payments are not received on time, bookings will be released unless an extension or alteration to the due dates is agreed in writing by TeenEagle's Head Office.

Partial payments or payments that do not meet the full invoiced amount will not be sufficient to retain bookings. Notification of payment alone will not be enough to retain bookings unless an extension has been agreed. Failure to secure a specific booking by appropriate payment or to cancel clearly may result in the release of all bookings held for that client.

If credit facilities have been specifically agreed upon in writing between TeenEagle and a client, such payments and dates as agreed will apply. However, if these are not met by the client, credit facilities will be automatically suspended, and all bookings may be released.

In cases where students are already attending an TeenEagle course or are due to arrive, and overdue invoices exist, TeenEagle reserves the right to refuse or discontinue services without notice.

2. AGES

The minimum and maximum age for each centre and course is specified in our brochures, price list, and website. These vary by centre and course, but the maximum age on TeenEagle junior courses is typically 17 years. These terms and conditions apply to all Oscar Education junior courses.

3. VISAS

Students are responsible for fully complying with all Immigration Authorities' requirements both before and during their stay. TeenEagle reserves the right to refuse an application if there is doubt about compliance with immigration regulations. In case of visa delays or refusals, students must promptly inform TeenEagle and provide the original visa refusal letter for any refund consideration. If a student reapplies for a visa after refusal, no new deposit may be required, but additional registration or documentation fees may apply.

No fees will be refunded if students withdraw their application after a visa has been issued.

Visa Rejection Refund Policy:

If a visa rejection occurs more than 30 days before the program's start date, students will receive a 70% refund.

If a visa rejection occurs 20 to 30 days before the program's start date, students will receive a 60% refund.

If a visa rejection occurs 12 to 20 days before the program's start date, students will receive a 50% refund.

For visa rejections less than 12 days before the program's start date, students will receive a 20% refund, with 80% of the total fee held.

For visa rejections less than 7 days before the program's start date, there will be no refund.

4. PAYMENTS

For summer bookings, this should be paid by March 1, 2025. An additional 20% is due by May 1, 2025. The remaining balance must be paid at least 1 month before arrival.

For bookings made less than 1 month before the course start date, full fees are due immediately.

Group Leaders are responsible for supervising their students during key activities, such as wake-up times, meal times, free time, and excursions. Group Leaders must also provide documentation proving their suitability to work with young people.

8. CLASSES

Students will take a placement test on their first day to assess their English level. If a student does not meet the required level for a course, TeenEagle reserves the right to move them to a different course.

9. COMPLAINTS

Complaints should be made to the Centre Director during the stay. If unresolved, clients may submit a written complaint to TeenEagle's Head Office within 1 month of departure. TeenEagle will only investigate complaints if all related invoices are settled in full.
